While the Flaton Clutch Division of Bushman Equipment has designed this Web site to provide you with as much information about our products as possible, we are also committed to ensuring the security of your information.

We will request from you only the information we need to process your request, whether it be for further product information, for price quotes, or to process a sales order. To prevent unauthorized access to this information, we have put in place appropriate procedures to safeguard the information we collect online. Sensitive data, such as credit card information, is encrypted. If you prefer to give us this information by telephone, fax or mail, please do so.

Bushman's cookies, the small pieces of information that are stored by your browser, do not contain any personally identifying information. We use cookies to collect data about usage of our Web site. If you prefer, you can prevent most browsers from accepting cookies, and you will still be able to use our site to download information and complete data requests.

Occasionally, we will use information from our online customers to send additional information about new or improved products that we think will be of interest to you. At times we may give a customer's name to a local Bushman representative because we think this person can service your needs better than we can from Wisconsin.

Bushman does not sell, rent, trade or give online information to any party not directly associated with Bushman Equipment, Inc. In rare instances, we may release information if, in good faith, we believe that the release is necessary to comply with current laws; to enforce or apply the terms of our agreements; or to protect the rights, property or safety of Bushman and/or of other individuals.
